

Sarina Community Day

Celebrating Landcare Week (2-8 September)

At the Sarina Community Native Gardens

What's on..

Catch Costa in your community!

When Saturday 7 September

Time 10am to 1pm

Where Sarina Community Native Gardens

(Cnr Beach & Cemetery Rds, Sarina)

- Meet Costa Georgiadis, host of ABCs' Gardening Australia: ~ Food production for your backyard, sustainability & utilising space ~
- Launch of the Sarina Community Native Gardens ~ hear about the journey of the gardens since 2009 ~
- Announcing the winners of the Sarina Native Garden Competition ~ be inspired by local gardeners & their creations ~
 - Guided tours ~ see the benefits and uses of native plants ~
 - Displays and stalls ~ chat with local organisations & groups, find out how to become involved ~
 - Food & refreshments

Sarina Community Native Gardens

~ Demonstrating the use and benefits of native plants ~

..From little things, big things grow..

with inspiration from the SLCMA staff & volunteers, approval from Council, advice & support from other groups including Society for Growing Australian Plants, Mackay Regional Botanic Gardens, Mackay Regional Council and Conservation Volunteers Australia.

For more information contact:

Sarina Landcare Catchment Management Association (SLCMA):

Office | 101 Beach Rd, Sarina

Post | PO Box 682, Sarina 4737

P | (07) 4956 1388

E | slcma@mcs.net.au

See you there!